Mrs. Hibbetts

Coach Cooper

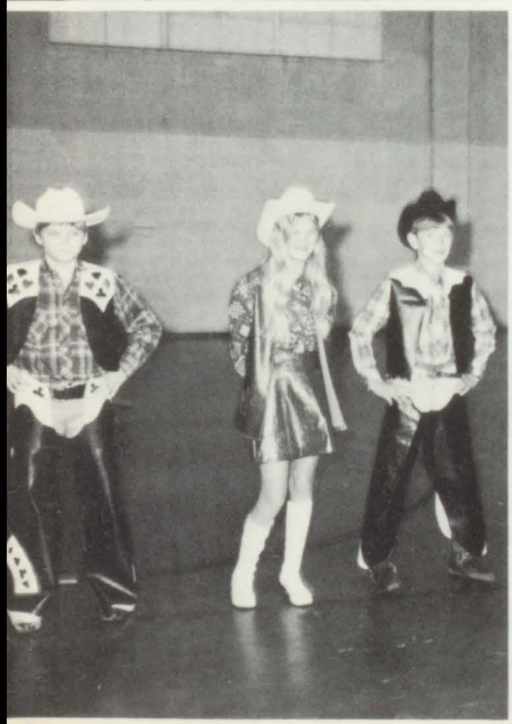

This annual relates to the fact that each person and place goes through changes. Kennedale School System has gone through many changes, starting from a little two-story brick building with a well beside it, and only about forty people in the high school.

Now as the city of Kennedale progresses, we have spent our first year in an exclusively modern school, with an enrollment of approximately 350 students.

Also, we have all changed throughout the years, and will continue to change. Not only physical characteristics, but also our attitudes and personalities have changed. Changes have helped to develop our characters and make each of us an individual, something we all can be proud of.

Included in this yearbook is evidence of these changes. We, the annual staff, are giving you a chance to use your imagination and think back and remember the different phases, stages, and changes you've gone through as the years have passed.

This year's annual staff voted to dedicate the following pages to a teacher who cares, a friend out of class, a person who always wears a smile, an understanding mother, a person who has left her imprint on the minds of many students. This lady is full of school spirit and pride, and is one of those who helped to build up our school spirit and taught us to have pride in ourselves. She is one who always attends school activities. She is a person that students trust and admire. We are all proud for her to be a member of our faculty, for she is the type of person that will stand out in our memories for a long time to come. That is why this year we show our respect to MRS. MARTHA GARDNER by dedicating this annual to her.

I, MONTE MAYSE, being of indescribably brilliant mind and too much body, do hereby will to DANA GASSIOT the ability to pass one of Mrs. Lake's last minute Math Quizes, and also to be able to eat a complete meal in math class without anyone finding out.

Me, myself, and I, BOBBY (OLE MAN) ROBERTS being of handsome, able, and somewhat staggering body, hereby will to MIKE LUNA the ability to drive without hitting defensless trees while they're sleeping; also my ability to drink my favorite beverage without mistaking a garage for a bedroom.

I, LISA FLOWERS, being of stretched body and strained mind will to TAMMY (HONKER) GREENFIELD all of the joy from Joy Lane that you so richly deserve, but accompanying this joy is responsibility: you must be a doctor to all skinned knees, broken hearts, gum-matted hair, and please give special attention to those fainting girls who stuff dolls under their shirts. And you positively must not forget your plastic bed cover on your journey to Africa which incidently no one knows why you're going, not even you. Lastly I give to you all my worldly knowledge of being a lady—Smile graciously and straighten your shorts. And Tammy, about hour honking, it's really quite charming to those who love you, but there is a time and place for everything. Now we both know that with being responsible there is a reward. Well, the red lights are on, and you don't have to go home. You're a big girl now, sis.

I, DIANE BEZDEK, being of sound mind, but fragile bones, will to LYDIA HICKERSON the ability to wear a dress at least twice during her senior year. But most of all, I will her lots of good luck and happiness to get her through her senior year.

I, JACKIE FERRIS, being of well-proportioned mind and flat body, do hereby will BARBARA STRAHAN my easy to manage hair, my beautiful lips award, and also my pea green car, so she can be late to school every day in her senior year.

I, MELVIN EARP, being of you-know-what breath and steak body, do hereby will the following to TINA (Little Victor) HARVEY: 1) A pair of gloves to hide her fat finger; 2) One new pair of blue jeans so she won't have to wear those ugly overalls everyday; and 3) The ability to keep from getting so mad at the basketball games.

I, RODNEY POLLEY, being of nasty mind and unretouched body, do hereby will RICKY ANDERSON the ability not to fall head over heels when Carol Bruce walks by.

I, DAVID SANDERS, being of sound mind and able body, will JERRY ROBBINS the ability to hit moving targets such as Red Oak Buses from a distance of a 100 yards with rotten eggs.

Me, CRAIG (MELVIN) EARP, being of darker complexion that most white folks do hereby will MICKEY "ELAINE" WRIGHT the following: 1) My fantastic jump shot and the ability to score 40 points in one game and to grade out to a plus; 2) One greatly prepared meal at the finest place in town where he will order "I want the biggest steak you got and a bottle."

I, RICHARD CUNNINGHAM, being of magnificent mind and cherishable body will JACKIE WAITS an old fishing pole baited with my good looks to catch a lof of blonde fish, and a bottle in his boots.

I, MINDI RIDDLES, being of strategic mind and leaping body will "Speedracer" KENT CARUTHERS a hot rod running '57 Chevy that won't be found on the side of the road either out of gas or not running. Plus I will him a Michelle Riddles doll so that he won't ever forget his first true love.

I, CHERYL ANDERSON, being of short mind and tall body will to CONNIE BUSBY four inches of my height so she won't have to stand on a chair to kiss Walley, and a year's supply of brown hair dye for her senior year, because Brunnettes have more fun.

I, LISA TUGGLE, being of fantastic bod, and evil mind, do hereby will Little Sis PATRICIA LYON the pleasure of getting little enough to wear a size 7 in clothes, and the broken railings of Randy Tuggle's bed.

I, TERRY CULTON, being of sound mind and strong body do hereby will to TIM GOGGANS an old truck body, one bottle of tranquilizers, and one blown piston from my motorcycle. And I also will JEFF ROWNEY my blown out tennis shoes, my dumbbells, and a two year's supply of tickets to go to Nautilis to get that Nautilis physique.

I, TERRY CULTON, being of good nature in most all ways, will JOHN BARDIN a 350 engine to fit in his Camaro. I also will GERRY (FORD) GARRETT a bottle of his favorite beverage that will last at least one year, and a wild pie. (Recipe: 10 used frog legs, ten gallons of your favorite beverage, six tablespoons skunk oil, four strings of hair from President Carter. Combine and stir well. Pour in a pie shell and bake.) And I also will JOHN GASSIOT all the VOLKS wagons in the world to start his own VOLKS wagon shop.

I, MONTE MAYSE, being of marbleized mind and body, do will to TIM DAVIS, my outstanding ability to talk to anyone at anytime about anything.

I, DARRELL PATTERSON, of indestructable mind and body, will to MARY JEAN CREAMER my wonderful ability to get along with all my teachers and not break anything or drive them crazy.

I, MINDI RIDDLES, lithe of body and fleet of foot and mind, will DONNA FOLMAR Darrell's speed in apprehending known criminals and my ability to hand things in on time, no matter what.

I, RICHARD CUNNINGHAM, being of quick mind and fantastic body, will BOBBY KNOTTS one lifetime supply of Carole dolls, batteries not included, and one acre of land, and a defroster for his lemon-Chevy. I also will JIMMY HAY one case of empty oil cans, one new, and one used freeze plugs, and a light foot.

I, CONNIE DEAVER, being tall of body and mind, do will TIMMY MORGAN one pair of extra large training wheels for his car and a skateboard for transportation. I also will KEVIN PAUL one new bumper and Tammy G.'s laugh, or should I say, honk.

I, DARRELL PATTERSON, of lightening fast mind and reflexes, will to BILL OSBORN one pair of unfoggable glasses, and one pocket-size nuclear bomb. And I also will to ROYCE RHODES one year membership to Nautilis and a new freeze plug.

I, BRIAN LONG, being of brilliant mind and professional skills do herby bequeth to ROBERT STEPHENS my sense of humor and a leash for his pet bee.

I, DENA PEARCE, being of sound mind and odd shaped body, will KAREN KERSTEN the ability to listen to country and western music for a week without changing the station to rock music.

I, PAM BROWN, being of curly mind and almost straight body, do hereby will STAN ROUNTREE my little junkier to add to his collection, and hopes that he doesn't turn out like his Dad, and come in the D.Q. every night and drink coffee and talk with Lester Neeley.

I, SUZIE LUTTRELL, being of sound mind do hereby will to CATHERINE FAZZIO a season pass to Six Flags for the rest of her life, and 10 cases of Pepto-Bismol for when she gets sick. And to RUTH CRUM, I leave my ability to laugh and walk down the halls with your head held high, no matter what anyone says.

I, JIM LOFTIN, being of dirty mind and thin body will WILLIAM WEST my ability to do the two-step, drive a standard pickem-up truck, 1 half-empty pouch of Red Man, my Merle Haggard tape, and 1000 tomatoes.

Me, TAMMY (ROSENOSE) ROSEBERRY being of decrepit mind and puny body do hereby will KIM (TIMID) FRAZIER my ability to be aggressive in basketball but without being dropped from the team. Also my ability to refuse the temptation of cutting my hair, in order to add some length.

I, CHRIS CAYCE, being of almost sound mind and body, will TERRY MEEK the ability to grow one inch without shrinking two, and all my problems from my car to his.

I, TERRY GARRETT, being short on mind and tall of body, will KEVIN HOUSTON one sledge hammer to smash his hood scoop, and a pair of tickets to Disney World.

I, MARK BIGLER, being of undecidable mind and half-way decent body will STEVE TATUM my ability to put up a good argument with Coach Cummins and not get into trouble, and Government class, hoping he understands it better than I did.

Class Of 78: Your Future Looks Great!

We see TAMMY (Rose Nose) ROSEBERRY building her own house all by herself, and waiting for the day that she and Eddie can move in.

VICKI YEARY is still trying to follow in her sister's footsteps that were left behind. But maybe along the way, she gets out of step and marries her beloved Dennis.

What is that sound? It's CINDY LANE telling her corny jokes again, and her being the only one laughing at them.

In the future we see LISA (Pistokache) COOPER giving her daughter a book called "Fifty Ways to Follow Your Love."

We now see PAM BROWN on her honeymoon with Larry, Douglas, and Rodney. We're sure she's having a good time — even though she does have to ride in the back of the truck.

In the future, we see PAPA ROBERTS opening his new restaurant, called "Bobby's Boogie", featuring Elton John serving Mexican food, with all the free Koolaid you can drink in an hour. But he is going out of business; he is his own best customer.

We see ROSETTA ROBERTS with her five kids. As she mops the floor, she looks at Bobby's picture and sings.

We now see KEITH HOUSTON sitting in the president's chair of the Winn Dixie Corporation watching his brother Kevin running stock.

We see KAYLO BOYD married to Windell, and she is now the manager of the nursing home.

Now we see MARK BILGER still standing in line at the License Bureau trying to get his commercial license so that he can get his old green Mustang painted.

And SCOTT HAMRICK has his own Auto Supply. All he has to do now is keep his Chevy's running.

In the future, we see DAVID SANDERS running his own watermelon factory, with a whole line of new watermelon trucks.

Now we see LISA FLOWERS going from beauty pagent to beauty pageant, still keeping that unforgettable smile of hers. When asked what her ambition in life is, she answered that she hopes to become a diesel truck driver since she has already had practice in two trucks and a van.

Little LISA TUGGLE and her husband BRIAN LONG are living in their beautiful mansion high atop Kennedale Mountain. It overlooks their oil field, that is the oil well underneath her leaky car.

CHRIS CAYCE is now a multimillionaire owning a chain of Auto Supply stores, known as "Vroom Vroom" Cayce's Slightly Used Auto Supply Shoppe. Later in life he will become the first President of the U. S. who is a grease monkey in his spare time.

JANA (Mrs. Fuzz) MAYSE is now appearing on "Eight is Not Enough" — as the mother.

And MONTE (Fuzz) MAYSE has finally made it to the National Hot Rod Association finals, but he made it on his brother Robbie's pit crew.

CHUCKIE CARPENTER, with Sonya close by his side, stops every five miles for gas because he only puts a quarter's worth in at a time.

And we see RODNEY POLLY sitting in his living room giving his son a heart-to-heart talk about the Good Ole Days at K.H.S. As we listen, we hear him tell his son how he could fall asleep in Mrs. Hudson's Algebra class, snore and not get caught; and how he used to flirt with all the girls in that class, and not get caught by you-know-who on her way to lunch. As we say good-bye, we hear Rodney, Jr. say "Dad, when I grow up, I want to be just like you."

Now here's RANDY THOMPSON! Why, he's in his chocolate colored Ford pickup! What's he doing? He's stopping at every gas station and Ford Repair Shop.

Here's TERRY CULTON driving down Highway 287, trying to find the lucky one.

In the near future, we see TOI TIGNER receiving another promise ring from Mark. We hear Mark say "Maybe I'll graduate from college someday, so until then, promise rings will have to do." Does TOI have any objections? No! The rings bring a few dollars at the local Pawn Shop.

WINDELL (Tuffie) SANDERS is now the head of the Winn Dixie Corporation instead of wishing he was a car dealer for Dub Shaw Ford.

We now see MINDI RIDDLES manufacturing her own mini-sew cases so that each time she gets a new patch, she can sew it on her Varsity jacket immediately. Mindi is on her way to State again, and so is Dale. He is on his way to the state of Texas to faithfully stand beside Mindi to give her the faith she needs before she jumps.

We now see DONNA (Boo-Boo) FORD living in her enchanted dream world with her handsome prince, Barry. When Donna kisses Barry good-bye, he replies "Ribbett-Ribbett." Where is Donna going? She is off to the Emergency Ward to make it an even eight.

We now see RICK (Taking Care of Business) YEAKLE lead singing on the Gong Show. Critics say he leaves the crowd in amazement. Amazed that the panel can't find their Gong's.

And CRAIG MELVIN EARP is running his own restaurant. But all he has on his menu is steak and you-know-what.

JACKIE FERRIS is distracted by Craig Earp and she hits the only orange van in sight.

KAREN JERNIGAN is opening tonight in a Broadway Musical, "Blue Beard and His Wife."

We now see DIANE BEZDEK and Billy walking their dog and three kids in the park for their Sunday exercise.

In the near future we see JOE GRIZZARD still sitting in the same Government class, asking the same Dumb Questions over and over.

We see dear old CONNIE DEAVER sitting at home thinking David will be there at any time, but unknown to Connie, he has driven around Kennedale 147 times, breaking his old record of 146, trying to find her house. Connie gives up and drives over to Everman to find his house. She has been known to go through Everman, honking her horn. She never finds David, but finds Bill who is looking for CHERYL ANDERSON, only he is on the wrong side of town.

We now see TAMI JOHNSON driving around in her little red bug, advertising for Pat's Country Kettle.

Now we see KATHY WALDROP marrying Bobby Robberts, still trying to convince Rosetta that he's not her Bobby.

And DIANE STEED has finally married Ralph. She's a star on "Happy Days."

PAM ELLISON is running for the next secretary of Kennedale High.

BRENDA HOWELL asks how she got the name Howell.

Now we see MELANIE KELLEY and JUDY STRICKLAND chasing that short-haired blonde down the alley. You can tell which one is Melanie, because of the glow-in-the-dark hair.

Now we see GEORGE SWINDELL opening his own restaurant, called "George's Jip Joint."

And MIKE THOMAS now owns a super sounding Camaro pounding shop.

We see that DENA PEARCE now has a part-time job as Dairy Queen's Official Bouncer. She spends her spare time between working out at the gym, punching bags, and practicing yelling, (in case she runs into some toughies), and cruising around in Terry C.'s mean black truck.

We also see BECKY WALKER with her husband Paul, touring Europe for the 5th time in brother-in-law's van, (Which was only borrowed for two days.)

In the future, we see DARRELL PATTERSON, the proud owner of Patterson's Perfect Photos, has just opened his own Lost and Found Department, specializing in trucks, cameras, and sound systems.

In the First National Bank of Kennedale, we see LENA DUNCAN as the Head Accountant. She is still deciding whether or not her business life is more important than her family life.

CHERYL ANDERSON is the leader of the first Six Flags Band. She is selling Christmas candles and cheese and sausage to support it.

"KARATE" JOE GILSTRAP, ten years from now, is preaching at the Trinity Baptist Church in Forest Hill. His wife and nine kids will be taking karate at the Pat Burleson Studios in Forest Hill while he is working the night shift at the James A. Arthur Elementary School in Kennedale.

When TERRY GARRETT graduates from K.H.S., he is going to open his own mechanic shop in Kennedale.

In the future, we see JAMES BROWN visiting Mrs. Lake's Algebra class and still getting in trouble for wearing his hat.

In the near future, we see RAMONA NEROS advancing from Grounds Quality to Pink Things Stand.

Ten years from now, RICHARD CUNNINGHAM is still trying to sell his "flop-bird" and he is spending his weekends in Possum Kingdom.

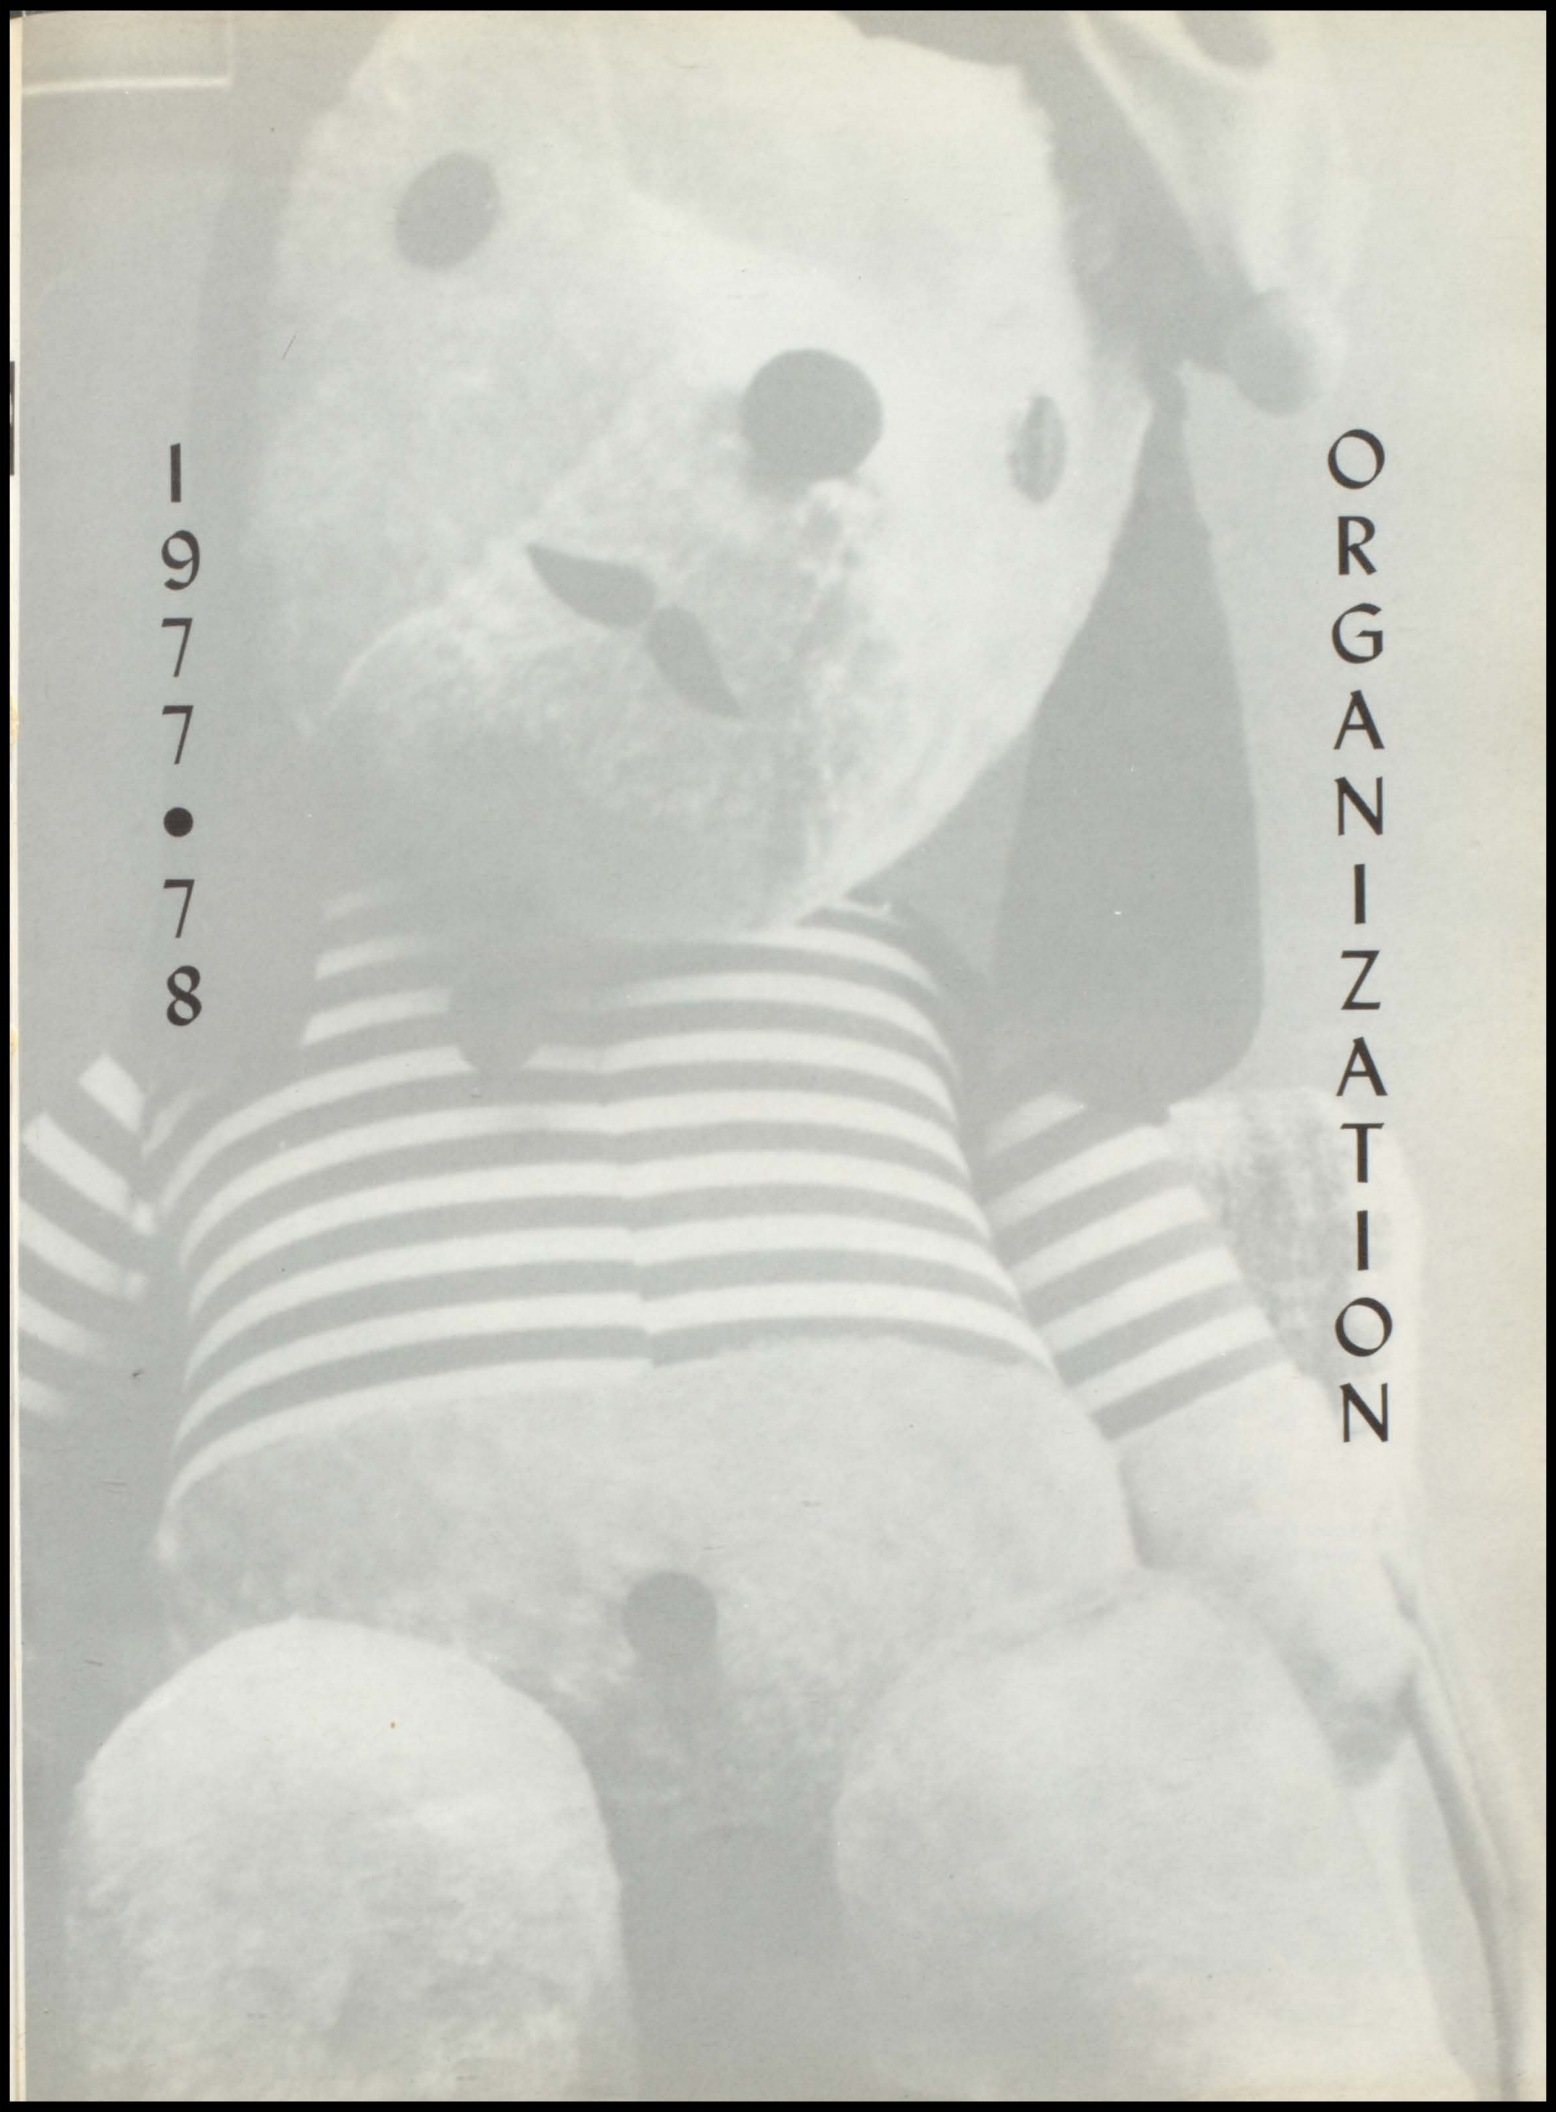

BUDDY HARRISON has the flashiest car in Kennedale ... There is only one problem — you cannot tell which way he's going!!!

NATHAN THOMPSON has now become a famous movie star and is taking all the super macho parts Sylvester Stallone refused. He and Kelli walk hand-in-hand into the sunset, with Jody Harvey running behind him yelling, "You Weirdo!"

JIM LOFTIN is now the Reigning WORLD Champion Bullrider. When he is asked how he became champ, he replied, "Lots of luck, and a good Ford truck."

BARBARA HOLT, still fighting off Andy, is running for the next Sav-U manager.

We see GINA BOWERS hard at work at General Hospital. Not only is she the greatest nurse there, but she also doubles as the in-residence smile lady, bringing cheer to everyone around. Bet she's got some stories to tell when she gets home!

HOMECOMING TRADITION

Is it worth it?
To work in the heat with all the Sweat and Dirt? After you've spent
Eight grueling hours at school?
Working until late at night to build a Bonfire that will be big enough that
We can say that it is
"The Biggest One Yet?"

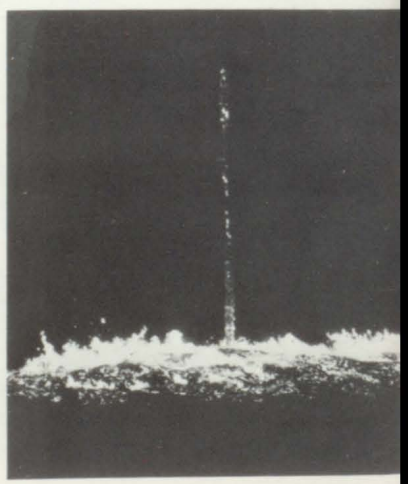

But is it fair to ask that question?
It's an annual event and a Tradition that's Been around for years. Not only is it a Tradition, but it builds Spirit and keeps our Football team going. Without it Homecoming Would not be the same. Or better yet, the whole School year wouldn't be right. For these reasons,
We can all say that
"It IS Worth It!"

STAY'S THE SAME!

GOD'S LOVE

In Memory of John William Sanders

God's love is to hear the roar of the sea,
To walk through the forest filled with its flowers and trees.

To run through fields of sweet smelling clover,
To see a rainbow of many colors
after the rain is over.

To feel a breeze as it may blow,
To see the whiteness of a new fallen snow.
To have moon and stars to fill the night,
To see the birds in winter flight.

To see a sunset in God's big sky,
To hear a new born baby's cry.
To be left with a memory of a loved one passed.
To fill the heart so it may last.
To reminisce of days gone
by,
Remember his laughter or
the twinkle in his eye.
Remember the music that filled
his heart with joy,
The love he had for every girl and boy.
Thank you, God, for Your blessings
from above,
And for a memory so full of love.

— Sue Sanders
